STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER
FOR CONSOLIDATION OF RELATED
ACTIONS UNDER FRCP 42(a)(2)

8 I. STIPULATION

9 Plaintiff Nautica Condominium Owners (“Association”); Hartford Fire Insurance
10 Company, Great American E & S Insurance Company; Commonwealth Insurance Company of 11 America; Chubb Custom Insurance Company; and U.S. Fire Insurance Company collectively the 12 “Defendants”, hereby stipulate as follows:

13 1. The cases Nautica Condominium Owners Association v. Aspen Specialty Insurance
14 Company et al., Western District of Washington Cause No. 2:15-cv-01788-RSM; Nautica
15 Condominium Owners Association v. U.S. Fire Insurance Company et al., Western District of 16 Washington Cause No. 2:16-cv-01983-JLR; and Nautica Condominium Owners Association v.
17 Commonwealth Insurance Company of America et al., Western District of Washington Cause
18 2:17-cv-00082-TSZ, involve claims for insurance coverage for alleged damage to the Nautica
19 Condominium building.

20 2. The cases share common issues of fact and law as to liability and damages. The cases
21 also involve many of the same lay and expert witnesses, Association records, and other 22 documentary evidence.

23 3. Consolidating the cases for trial under Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a)(2) will promote efficiency
24 and conserve judicial resources. It will also conserve the parties’ resources, as it will avoid 25 duplicative discovery.
